(FOR ADDRESS C

Deal Beach (North). Standing on the pier and looking north, we see a stretch of pebbly beach. This fine shingle runs all along the shore. Washed by every high tide, it is clean and bright, and perhaps better for the eyesight than a glittering sandy shore. The pleasure-yacht, "Clarendon," in charge of skilful beachmen, is just being launched for a cruise in the Downs. The tri-gabled building beyond is the Royal Hotel.
